FORECLOSURES AND PREDATORY LENDING PRACTICES

Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich forwarded to this Office your correspondence of November 2, 2008 regarding the home foreclosure crisis and predatory lending practices. Thank you very much for your conscientious and public-spirited interest in these deeply troubling developments. You will be pleased to know that, on January 13, 2009, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors issued a series of directives to this Office and other County departments aimed at addressing exactly the issues you have identified (Attachment I).

These efforts are currently underway through a collaborative task force effort and, by copy of this response, I am providing your thoughtful, knowledgeable, and constructive input (Attachment II) to all task force members to ensure they are seriously examined as part of the study and resulting recommendations.

Thank you once again for your public involvement and your demonstrated desire to assist your community in these challenging times.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM T FUJIOKA
Chief Executive Officer
